

The Aroostook Review

PoetryFictionArt & PhotographyNonfictionLinksVolume 1, Number 2 (Summer 2007)
ISSN 1934-4324DisclaimerSubmissionsContact
The Aroostook ReviewNewslettersArchivesLinks

Sign up for The Aroostook Review
Newsletter!

To do so, send an e-mail by clicking on the link above with the word "Subscribe" in the subject line. To unsubscribe, send an e-mail with the word "Unsubscribe" in the subject line. Please allow a week for processing.

NEW-CUE, Inc. is a non-profit, environmental education organization founded primarily to assist writers and educators who are dedicated to enhancing the public's awareness of environmental issues.

Allen Mendenhall

Allen was raised in Marietta, Georgia, and graduated from Furman University, in Greenville, South Carolina, with a B.A. in English. He then moved to Japan to teach. He is currently a graduate student at West Virginia University, where he is working towards a dual degree in English and law.

Flash

Photograph in a Bar, Washington, D.C.

The guy in the foreground is Quint

my friend tells me

pointing to and holding a photograph at arm's length.

Behind Quint, on the table

two Bud Light bottles sweat

in sticky puddles, framing

a fluorescent margarita.

In Quint's hand: a cell phone.

There's a purse on the table

no girl to claim it

just an empty barstool

and silhouettes

of nameless faces

filling dark spaces.

Original website content (text, graphics, look & feel)

